Our Vision

Despite the frenzied growth in the number of projects presented to date in the world of cryptocurrencies, their uniqueness and diversity grows exponentially. Moreover, new areas are supported and launched thanks to people who believe in these projects. And this applies not only to crypto enthusiasts, but also to large funds, as well as investors and institutional.

However, not everything is as good as it might seem. There are a majority number of projects and ideas that do not even know where to start their journey. As well as a huge number of projects, deprived of technical problems and which require support not only financial, but also organizational.

This leads us to the fact that on the one hand, a team with experience can easily collect the necessary investments for its development, even without an idea, and on the other hand, a team of beginners with an innovative idea cannot move forward due to lack of experience and necessary support at the initial stage. Thus, to many high-potential projects being left unnoticed and lost opportunities for investors.

It should be understood that there are always two sides of the problem. Investors, represented by funds, institutional, as well as private investors are always looking for the best ways to make the most profitable investment of their funds. And naturally, they will be attracted by well-prepared startups, even if a similar solution is already on the market.

Not many investors are ready to support new ideas, as this can be a fairly high risk for investing. Even if it's an innovative idea that has the potential to change things, we're hearing the phrase "high risk, high reward" less and less.

A huge increase in demand in the cryptocurrency market always generates an explosive growth in the number of projects. But we understand that this is largely due to the large number of projects that were created not for new ideas, but for the purpose of gaining profit and deceiving investors.

That is why new startups are less and less trusted, and startups that already have the potential and everything they need for growth receive more preferences.

We want to prove that any idea has the right to be developed and to evolve.

Who We Are

Providing all users and members an ecosystem to access early-stage investment opportunities whilst providing the services and utility of decentralized finance (De-Fi). Evolve makes the accessibility of development at the early stages of the projects for developers, as well as providing access to investors at a stage of opportunity where you would usually see the big market players. With the decentralization of opportunity, we create long-term partnerships with projects whom we take under our wing, support and see potential for lasting success.

After passing through all the stages of preparation, formation and development of the project, it is ready for the launch of its IDO on our platform.

It must be said that the project does not have to go through all the stages on our platform, it has the right to immediately apply for an IDO.

At the IDO stage projects must provide the following information:

- Whitepaper or business plan
- Roadmap

After successfully completing IDO, projects, that were incubated, can now officially be launched and become fully independent. Evolve is giving the opportunity to extend the relationship, giving the necessary support in any aspect.

The investor's point of view

Since Evolve give the guarantee the legitimacy and launch of the project, community themselves choose what to invest their funds in. Our team of experts will be extremely careful about the potential of the project in order to minimize the risks of an unsuccessful launch or financial failure.

To start interacting with the platform, users must meet some requirements:

- Register and complete the KYC
- Link Solana wallet
- Receive EVL tokens for various activities
- Get an allocation or apply for the whitelist

Depending on the type of sale, users will have an opportunity to choose how they participate in it. There are several types of sales:

- Fully open sale, limited by the amount of collected funds or by time
- Limited sale by number of people, with a clearly defined allocation amount
- Whitelisted sale for investors on the whitelist, or for investors who have received a staking pool allocation

To get allocation, you need to purchase and stake EVL in specially made allocation pools. There are only two types of staking pool:

- EVL pool: choice of blocking or not, low-medium possibility of obtaining an allocation
- Double liquidity pool: choice of blocking or not, high possibility of obtaining an allocation

Everyone has a chance of taking a part in raising funds and to invest in the some of the greatest ideas, and, as a result, to be awarded. It works simple: the more activities you do and the more you have in the pool – the higher result you can get.

We take care that the investors with low capital have the opportunity to participate too, because Evolve is aimed to make IDO for everyone.

Roadmap

Future Plans

Despite the fact that the cryptocurrency market is a rather unstable place, and the situation can change several times a day, we believe in the stable success of our project. We're not going to stop at any failure. On the contrary, we are only going to increase the pace, increasing the volume and quality of the services and opportunities we provided.

Development will go at full speed without stopping, expanding the functionality of the platform and introducing new ideas. Of course, we also want to see more projects on our platform, we want to see more innovative ideas, and give them a go. But at the same time, we do not want to forget that quality is better than quantity.

As our ecosystem grows, new chains will gradually be added, allowing you to have a wide choice to start with. First, we want to try adding Ethereum and Polygon, but we also looking forward to work with BSC, Avalanche, and Ton.

We want to offer not only traditional ideas, but also bring something new to the cryptocurrency market. With the launch of our ecosystem, we plan to test the idea of investment staking, the brand-new idea, which will allow attracting investments in the early stages of project development, while keeping your investment funds in safe.
